FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

INTERIORS

Enter a room that we have decorated, and it will impress you just as a fine painting would do. Why? Because everything is in keeping. Nothing has been introduced unless it was not only beautiful, but would add to the effect of the whole. If, when summer comes, your country house rooms remain unfreshened and undecorated, what will compensate you for the pictures that might have been?

A PERFECT SADDLE.

The Perry, '97

ITS ENDORSERS?

ALL WHO RIDE IT.

THE SADDLE we now place upon the market combines the good points of both hard and soft saddles, and possesses the defects of neither. It is not hard, neither is it too soft. In fact, it can be made as hard or as soft as desired.

THE SHOCK to the nervous system caused by the jarring of the COCCYX or end of the SPINAL COLUMN upon the saddle is done away with. The pressure upon the arteries, cutting off the blood supply to the lower extremities cannot exist. The friction which so seriously injures the perineum and prostate gland, causing varicose veins, piles, stricture, etc., is entirely avoided.

WHILE, AS above mentioned, it is soft and yielding at all points of contact, it gives at all times a firm, substantial seat, and does not spring enough to interfere with the foot-hold upon the pedals.
 It is perfect in form and grace of outline, and adds materially to the beauty of any wheel it is placed upon.

WEIGHT 16 OZ. PRICE $5.00.

THE FEASTS OF AUTOLYCUS

THE DIARY OF A GREEDY WOMAN

Edited by ELIZABETH ROBBINS PENNELL.

12mo, Cloth, Gift Top, $1.25.

"The volume is a true brilliant, of great enticement, and sure to be read through if once begun."—Boston Courier.

"The Feasts of Autolycus' should become a household manual."—N. Y. Journal.

"It makes one hungry to read of the good things that Mrs. Pennell here describes with so much zest."—Philadelphia Call.

"The book is simply perfect of its kind."—Boston Traveller.

"The work is most charmingly written, and its suggestions are most valuable to those who appreciate the work of the chef de cuisine."—San Francisco Call.

"A more unique or more inspiring book on the eatable good things of life cannot be found."
 —Boston Times.

"Mrs. Pennell's cleverness and versatility would make any subject attractive, and her suggestions for all sorts of toothsome devices in the way of food combine to make a charming as well as useful book."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

"In our opinion Mrs. Pennell has produced a book that will take its place among the few classics of its kind before many months have passed."—N. Y. Critic.

The Owl Publishing Co. have decided to give as prizes, five of these most popular wheels, with full manufacturers' guarantee. These wheels are made by the American Waltham Mfg. Co., of Waltham, Mass., Western salesroom, 165 Madison St., Chicago, Ill. (where the wheels may be examined at any time.) The Owl Publishing Co. will give to each of the five persons sending to them by May 15th, 1897, the five lists containing the greatest number of English words formed from the title of their popular magazine, "THE OWL." Do not use a letter more times than it occurs in the title, and do not use proper names or abbreviations. To the fifty persons sending the next greatest number of words the publishers will send any two of the popular books, handsomely bound in cloth and stamped in gold, in the list published on the third cover page of the May issue of "THE OWL." To everyone sending 25 words or more the publishers will send one of the books contained in the list above referred to. In order to enter this contest it is necessary for you to send 25 two-cent stamps, or P. O. money order for 50 cents, in return for which you will receive "THE OWL" for one year. Lists must be alphabetically arranged, and written only on one side of the paper. In case there should be more than five having all the words possible, the selection will then be made in accordance with the date the lists are mailed. Address:

The Owl Publishing Company, Room 1012, Union Square, New York, N. Y.

NOTE: The result of this contest, giving the names of parties winning bicycles, will be published in the July issue of "THE OWL."

HARDWOOD FLOORS

are easy to care for. This is their chief merit, although at the same time they are durable, sanitary, and in all ways economical. Don't say otherwise to those who have had experience with them, lest they laugh at you, haply not audibly, possibly not visibly, but surely internally and pityingly. But perhaps we are not impartial since we make floors and nothing but floors, save the appliances to keep floors in order. We publish a book of designs, a circular on the care of floors, and other literature on this subject. These are sent free for the asking.

JOHN LANE THE BODLEY HEAD

NOW READY

PATIENCE SPARHARK AND HER TIMES. By GERTRUDE ATHERTON. Crown 8vo, . . . $1.50.

"However much this story may expose itself to the poisoned arrows of destructive criticism, it remains, when all is said and done, a remarkably fine novel. I confess that the story carried me along irresistibly. I do not think so adequate an exposition of the differing ferments and forces in our modern American civilization has been made before. I am extremely grateful to Mrs. Atherton for what I consider one of the greatest novels of our time, and one of the most vivid pictures of life as it is near the centre of our American maelstrom. 'Patience Sparhark' should interest the people of to-day. It is fascinating—it is great art."—TOWN TOPICS.

THE QUEST OF THE GOLDEN GIRL. By RICHARD LE GALLIENNE. With cover design by Will Bradley. Crown 8vo, . . . $1.50.

"Of the episodes, 'Aucassin and Nicolette' is the most charming in a thoroughly decadent spirit, but when we come to 'Grace o' God,' we can hardly judge it dispassionately enough to criticize, so infinitely tender and personal is the note it strikes. For one who, gathering the best, may pass the evil unscathed, the book holds treasures."—THE LITERARY WORLD.

"However doubtful the morality of Mr. Le Gallienne's work, and however dangerous its philosophy, there can be no question of its charm and its exquisite literary quality."—DAILY TRIBUNE, Salt Lake City.

"The book merits reading, and, after reading, preservation, by all lovers of good literature."—DENVER TIMES.

THE INTERNATIONAL STUDIO

An Illustrated Magazine of Fine and Applied Art

"In a little over four years this has become the most successful art magazine in Europe."—London Daily Chronicle.

THE INTERNATIONAL STUDIO is identical with the London edition, and contains, also, a supplement dealing exclusively with American art.

The magazine treats upon art in all its phases—Art in printing, Art in Books, Art in Decoration, Art in the Home. It illustrates not only the best pictures, but also the best decorative designs of the day.

The principal writers on art in America, England, France, Germany, and Italy contribute to its pages.

"The STUDIO still holds its place as the most interesting magazine of the kind published in England."—New York Evening Sun.
